President Eisenhower yesterday nominated Robert W. Minor, former administrative assistant to Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio), as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Minor, now first assistant to Deputy Attorney Gen. William Rogers, was among 155 names sent to the Senate for confirmation in Federal posts.

The 36-year-old native of Columbus, Ohio, was proposed for the remainder of the ICC term ending Dec. 31, 1958, of J. Haden Alldredge, who recently retired.

Minor served as assistant counsel to the Senate Investigations Subcommittee in 1948-49 and as administrative assistant to Bricker from 1949 to 1953.

Among the nominations previously disclosed and made official yesterday was that of Charles K. Rice, 45, to be an assistant attorney general. Rice, now living in New Jersey but born in Watertown, N. Y., would replace H. Brian Holland, who has resigned.

The President also reappointed William McChesney Martin Jr. to the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System for a 14-year term dating from Feb. 1, 1956. Martin is now head of the board.

Mr. Eisenhower also nominated Lt. Gen. Willard Gordon Wyman for the rank of general and proposed to assign him, effective March 1, as commanding general of the Continental Army command.

Wyman is now deputy commanding general under Gen. John E. Dahlquist, scheduled for retirement soon.

Another previously unannounced nomination was of R. Lockwood Jones, 47, of Cordell, Okla., to be a member of the Subversive Activities Control Board.

Jones, now city attorney of Cordell, was selected to fill the remainder of the term of David J. Coddair, resigned, on SACB. The term runs to Aug. 8, 1960.

Among previously disclosed appointments was that of G. Joseph Minetti, former Commissioner of the Board of Transportation, New York, to replace Josh Lee on the Civil Aeronautics Board. Minetti, more recently a member of the Federal Maritime Board, would serve a six-year term ending Dec. 31, 1961.
